

Bonatti to Help Raise Menzel Lejmat Nord Flows

Bonatti to Help Raise Menzel Lejmat Nord Flows Speaking to reporters, the CEO of Algeria's state-run oil and gas firm Sonatrach, Abdelmoumen Ould Kaddour revealed a new deal had been signed that could add 13,000 barrels per day (bpd) to its production totals. Kaddour said Sonatrach signed a deal worth €85 million with Italian firm Bonatti to lift oil production at the Menzel Lejmat Nord field to 30,000 bpd from the current 17,000 bpd. The field is run with Indonesia's state energy firm Pertamina and Repsol.
